Disclaimer and Release

To be signed by every participant, including each person who rides with a driver on a carriage at any time from the arrival at the farm to departure.

I understand that the Equestrians’ Institute (“E.I.”) and its officers, the organizing committee members, and the property owners do not accept or have any responsibility for accidents, damage, injury, illness or death to horses, owners, riders, drivers, grooms, passengers, children, attendants, spectators or any other person or property in connection with this event. I am fully aware that horse sports, including driving, and this event involve inherent dangerous risk of serious injury or death and by participating I do so voluntarily and expressly assume any and all risks of injury, death or loss in conjunction with this event, whether or not such claim, injury or loss arising out of or resulting from, either directly or indirectly, the negligent acts or omissions of EI, its officers, directors and organizing committee, or property owner and therefore expressly release the foregoing individuals and organization. The use of protective headgear by all persons riding in a carriage is required by the property owner. Per American Driving Society regulation, helmets are required for Juniors at all times and for drivers and grooms in the cones and marathon phases.
